

Tea Goans at Ribbon Cutting for Ray Price Exhibit

March 4, 2015

A ribbon cutting was held Saturday (2/28) at the Texas Country Music Hall of Fame in Carthage, TX, for the expansion project of the new "Ray Price: For The Good Times" exhibit. Crosswind recording artist TEEA GOANS was invited to lend a hand at the event.

L to R: Eddie Stubbs (WSM/Grand Ole Opry), Janie Price, Tommie Ritter Smith (President of the Texas Country Music Hall of Fame Executive Board), Dallas Wayne (SiriusXM's Willie's Roadhouse) and Tea Goans.

Goans cites Price as her primary musical influence and has recorded a number of songs he made famous, including her latest release, Memories To Burn, which includes Price's "I Won't Mention It Again."

Contact: Erin Morris / Morris Public Relations / 615.419.9988 / erin@morrispr.biz

P.O. Box 210588
Nashville, TN 37221

615-952-9250
www.morrispr.biz